Jean Monnet Activities

Jean Monnet Activities support the following Actions:

- Jean Monnet Modules (teaching and research)
- Jean Monnet Chairs (teaching and research)
- Jean Monnet Centres of Excellence (teaching and research)
- Jean Monnet Support to Associations
- Jean Monnet Networks (policy debate with the academic world)
- Jean Monnet Projects (policy debate with the academic world).

Jean Monnet Modules

- A Jean Monnet Module is a short teaching programme (or course) in the field of European Union studies at a higher education institution.
- Each Module has a minimum duration of 40 teaching hours per academic year.
- Modules may concentrate on one particular discipline in European studies or be multidisciplinary in approach and therefore call upon the academic input of several professors and experts.

Jean Monnet Modules

- General or introductory courses on European Union issues (in particular at institutions and faculties that do not yet have a highly developed course offering in the field);
- Specialised teaching on European Union developments (in particular at institutions and faculties that do already have a highly developed course offering in the field);
- Summer and intensive courses that are fully recognised.

Jean Monnet Modules

Who can apply? A higher education institution, individuals cannot apply directly for a grant.

Duration: 3 Years

Up to 30,000 EUR that can represent the maximum of 75% of the total cost of the Jean Monnet Module.

Other Jean Monnet Activities

Policy debate with academic world, supported through:

- a) Chair – teaching post with a specialization of EU studies
- b) Center of Excellence - aims at developing synergies between the various disciplines and resources in European studies, as well as at creating joint transnational activities and structural links with academic institutions in other countries. It also ensures openness to civil society
- c) Support to Associations – national representative interdisciplinary associations open to all professors and researchers specializing in EU issues.
- d) Networks to enhance cooperation between different universities throughout Europe and around the world, foster cooperation and create a high knowledge exchange platform with public actors and the Commission services on highly relevant EU subjects.
- e) Projects for innovation and cross-fertilisation and spread of EU content aimed to promote discussion, reflection on EU issues and to enhance knowledge about the EU and its processes.
