More Opportunities in the Youth Field

Youth Participation Activities

This action supports non-formal activities that encourage, promote, and facilitate young people's participation in democratic life at local, regional, national, and European levels.

Virtual Exchange projects

These projects involve online, people-to-people activities that foster intercultural dialogue and develop soft skills, enabling all young people to access high-quality international and cross-cultural education without the need for physical mobility.

Cooperation Partnerships

This is an inter-EU call open to Israeli Organizations with essential added value. These partnerships aim to improve the quality and relevance of organizational activities and national/regional/EU-level impact in different fields.

Capacity Building in the field of Vocational Education and Training

A project to improve vocational Education and training for the job market (not academic) that has national importance.

How to get started?

- ① Identify an urgent, strategic, institutional, regional or national need that is not being met/funded by another source
- ② Find partners or collaborators with strong relevance and motivation
- ③ Map the needs, activities, applications, and desired outcomes
- ④ Work together on delivering innovative and impactful projects and deliverables

Submission Process

*Mobility projects grants are generally announced a few months after selection
